

ELLEN MICOTTO ASSOCIATE

 (312) 824-6010
 emicotto@vantageleadership.com

Joining the firm back in 1988, Ellen has over 25 years of experience with Vantage and is an integral part of its history. She has been involved in administrative support throughout all of the firm's initiatives and practice areas. As well as serving as an Assistant to one of the firm's partners, Ellen is the point of contact for 360 degree instruments, including the Leadership Effectiveness Analysis and the High Performance Teams Survey.

Before joining Vantage, Ellen worked in both the Retail and Financial Services industries in middle management and account manager roles. Ellen has a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing from Governors State University.

Outside of the office, Ellen is very involved with local community theater activities both on and off the stage. She also enjoys Bunco games with friends, scouring vintage clothing shops for costumes, and weekend walking excursions with like-minded enthusiasts.

“Courage is being scared to death... and saddling up anyway.”
- John Wayne