Jake joined Vantage in 2017 to expand his experience in leadership assessment and development. He received a bachelor's degree in psychology from Wagner College and is currently enrolled in a clinical psychology Ph.D. graduate program at Illinois Institute of Technology.

His background includes clinical experience in conducting behavioral health interventions and administering psychological and neuropsychological assessments. His research activities have led to 6 co-authored peer-reviewed publications, and 6 poster presentations at national conferences. Prior to moving to Chicago for graduate school, Jake worked as a research project coordinator at Columbia University Medical Center.

Jake enjoys biking and playing music in his free time.

“It's not about standing still and becoming safe. If anybody wants to keep creating they have to be about change.”
