Haleigh joined Vantage in the summer of 2018 as an Account Services Coordinator. Her primary focuses are around scheduling services, supplying report deliverables, and providing customer relations to ensure client satisfaction.

Haleigh moved to the Chicago during the summer of 2017. Prior to her start at Vantage, Haleigh lived in Woodstock, GA and graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Finance from Kennesaw State University. Before joining the team, she worked as a Project Manager for a multi-family asset management company reviewing and implementing ancillary income initiatives.

A few of her interests include: volunteering, participating at her local barre studio, shopping farmers markets, loving on random dogs she passes, and exploring the city with her husband. She looks forward to discovering the various opportunities the "Windy City" has to offer and soaking it all in.

"The future depends on what you do today."
