Joanne joined Vantage in 2018 as the Executive Assistant to Managing Partner, Keith Goudy. She brings a broad work experience in corporate and non-profit administration, serving in both administrative and development director roles. With an emphasis in client services, Joanne has successfully worked for commercial real estate developers, non-profit boards and created her own interior design business.

Joanne moved to Chicago in 2016 from her native city, San Francisco, where she studied Marketing and Communication at San Francisco State University. She remains active in volunteer work and is a member of the Junior League of Chicago.

She enjoys playing team tennis and is the proud mother of two daughters.

“Success is liking yourself, liking what you do, and liking how you do it.”
